

EPIPHANY PARTY — OPEN HOUSE
FEAST OF THE THREE KINGS

Home of Floyd and Mary Kay Kunce
1300 Rolling Ridge Lane, Sturgis

Friday, January 6, 2012
6:30 pm — ??

Bring an Hors d'oeuvre to share

7:30 pm Holy Eucharist in the Home

RSVP: 651-2652 by January 2, 2012

Advent - Waiting in Expectation

"We are living in this "little while" [time]. We can live in it creatively..." Henri Nouwen

Remember to pick up: A Calendar for next year.

- Sun, Dec 18, Advent IV after Coffee Hour—Christmas Caroling to the Homebound followed by a Soup Lunch in the Great Hall
- Sun, Dec 18—Contemplative Prayer Hour at 6:45 pm
- Wed, Dec 21—Trust Investment Committee Meeting at 3:30 pm
- Fri, Dec 23—Greening of the Church at 9 am
- Sat, Dec 24—Liturgy Rehearsal at 9:30 am

- Christmas Eve—5:30 pm Children's Nativity
10:30 pm Choral Holy Eucharist
- Sun, Dec 25, Christmas Day – No Services

- Mon, Dec 26—Office Closed
- Tues, Dec 27—Gathering in memory of Janet Douglas—3 pm (Great Hall)
- Wed, Dec 28—Holy Eucharist at Noon
- Sat, Dec 31—New Year's Eve Party—Celebrate with the Recovery Community—7 pm – until... All are welcome. Bring a dish to pass.
- Mon, Jan 2—Office Closed
- Fri, Jan 6—Epiphany Party & Liturgy at the Kunce's at 6:30 pm
- Tues, Jan 10—Vestry Meeting at 7 pm
- Fri, Jan 13—Movie Night at 7 pm. Tom Soper will lead the discussion. The Lives of Others is a complex film that satisfies on many levels. It swept the German "Oscars" as a thoroughly compelling political thriller, at once both intellectually challenging and also profoundly emotional. Set in East Berlin in 1984, the film captures a time when the Secret Police still wielded enormous and even destructive power. It is a fascinating commentary on a dark and chilling period in German history, and an impassioned plea for human interconnectedness, compassion and respect for the rights of individuals. It is a great story.
- Mon, Jan 16—Martin Luther King Day
- Tues, Jan 17—Music Selection Committee Meeting at 7 pm
- Sun, Jan 22—All Parish Potluck and Annual Meeting at 11:30 am